INTRODUCTION

This is an Astro-Analysis based on the exact time, date, and place of birth calculated on the details supplied.

It is not intended to predict a budding mega-star or a future world leader - the objective is to provide some insights into the psyche of Shirley to give everyone concerned a better chance of understanding, and hopefully helping this special child through the difficult growing times that they will face.

The astrological Chart is a little like a jigsaw puzzle without the benefit of a picture to follow. Some pieces are easy to recognize and they fit together beautifully. Another batch might fit well - but seem unrelated to the first "batch". Several straggly bits probably seem to belong to another world altogether, but that is the human psyche. The depths are immeasurable with many, many forms, faces, and dimensions.

Any Astrological chart will have seemingly several contradictions - again - just like human nature and our psychological make-up. But these apparent differences are all shades, shapes, and forms of the full picture. These "contradictions" should be seen as a balancing factor, knocking some of the edges off our sharp corners or, sharpening up the "softness" in the areas defined.

It should also be recognized that all of us have our own very personal lessons to learn in this life and these lessons unfold throughout the span of our entire life on earth. The learning experiences will not be systematic - they will be random episodes and experiences. Some interpretations of this Chart will give a glimpse of these very personal lessons that are an obvious part of this little one's character. Others may be so private or subtle that the child "learns" all by itself. And then there will be further lessons that will not have emerged or even seem significant yet.

It is hoped that the brief explanations throughout this analysis will help to explain the meanings and terminology of basic Astrology to give as much understanding as possible.

Nothing is quite like having a Chart done on a "one-to-one" basis, but this enormous electronic age has opened the way for anyone who is interested to have a closer look at this ancient science and benefit from its wisdom.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Sun in Taurus, Moon in Gemini

The "SUN SIGN" is the one part of the Astrological Chart that most people know. It is the inner core that drives and motivates us. It is our own true light. When we read and discuss our Sun signs we can easily recognize bits that fit, and maybe, question bits that do not seem to apply. The contrast noted is often related to the power of the other luminary - the Moon.

The Moon is our instinctive response. It reflects our earliest conditioning. The Moon governs our emotional responses, - our likes and dislikes - our innate sensitivities. Often the Moon sign is related to the maternal influence, or perhaps, the general home environment.

Both the Sun and the Moon are the two major players. When in a very different sign this does complicate the projected personality. This can be an essential but difficult learning curve that can be confusing for all concerned. Our Sun can try so hard to shine only to feel over-shadowed by a powerful, or competitive, Moon. Some of us will need to learn to accept and understand our emotional conditioning and allow the Sun the right to burst through, combining both strengths in a positive way.

This combination attempts to tie together both of these very significant forces and come up with a sharper, more focused picture.

Some signs are very compatible - others compete.

Here is a mix of Earth and Air. This combination is a little like the rotary hoe that aerates the soil and brings life and fertility to the sheer fabric of life. These kids are highly efficient; the mind is analytical and exacting with a sense of vision that can stretch the realms of possibility. Shirley will be clearheaded and confident and quite ambitious. Shirley will have little fear of stepping in and breaking new ground. An earthy and raucous sense of humor will develop as Shirley matures, which will make a useful tool. The use of words will be clever, the sense of timing exacting, and the droll delivery of expression will be entertaining and clever. However, this straightforward kid can struggle with understanding emotions and the subconscious mysteries that hit us all from time to time. The Earth and Air coupling can create a dust-storm that distorts the picture and hides what is really happening. Shirley might be reluctant to face or cope with the deeper issues, relying too heavily on the tangible, logical and intellectual answers.

Shirley has the Sun in Taurus and the Moon in Gemini, which is a contrary combination. This is a homing pigeon that likes to "fly" and yet needs a solid base to which to return. Shirley will be a friendly little soul. These kids like to have fun. They enjoy company, they like to interact and become involved in any activity that is going on. And yet, the interest can wane in an instant. Shirley thinks rather quickly and will be outspoken for a person born with a Taurus Sun, often jumping to conclusions - and just as often getting it wrong. These kids like to hear the sound of their own voice. They like to argue. This is how they learn. And this is often how they share any knowledge that they glean. A good memory will aid the love of learning, by giving the ability to retain information.

This is the sign of a gifted teacher who might emerge as life unfolds. This practical idealist will be animated, creative and capable of quite exceptional communication skills.

Shirley will find it very hard to admit when wrong. A rather flippant remark to put everyone off the scent will be a common practice, making use of a sharp wit and clever communication skills. The attitude can be inflexible and dogmatic. However, the nature is usually very pleasant, so others seldom take offence.

Shirley will be quite capable of being laid back, to the extent of being lazy - and yet these kids will be restless, needing lots of stimulation and lots of different company. Boredom sets in easily. In so many ways, this combination blows hot and cold. The aim is not to be complicated, or to get in a situation that is tense or combative, and yet the urge to question and argue does help to provoke a lively atmosphere. In a passive way, Shirley prefers that life run on the terms that best suit Shirley.

Shirley has a Sagittarius Ascendant and the Moon in Gemini. This adventurous little soul will want to try anything that is going. There is little sense of fear - just a strong sense of fun. Learning about everything there is to know is priority, but nothing is taken particularly seriously. Shirley is quite content and easily pleased. As long as there is lots of variety, and boredom does not get a chance to cross life's threshold, Shirley will be quite happy. These kids often pick up another language with relative ease so maybe this should be encouraged.

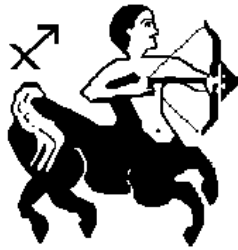

The greatest gift here is the gift of gab. This is the hallmark of a true sales executive - one who springs some unique ideas and is able to convince anyone who will stop long enough to listen. The word power is persuasive, colorful, and very credible. Shirley will never be stuck for an answer - although the elements of both fact and truth can be stretched. This is certainly not a deceitful child, but if a story can be sold better with a little embellishment, then that is the only way to go.

Like all the mutable signs - which both Sagittarius and Gemini are, the innate flexibility can be at the expense of staying power. Shirley will prefer to flit from one project to another rather than become an expert. The retention of knowledge is very good and understanding comes easily, but once the basic facts have been taken on board and filed away, that is often enough.

The Gemini Moonchild could have a Mom who is young at heart, easy-going and a lot of fun. The home environment is often busy and ever-changing - with lots of friends and lots of interests. Mother could well be young at heart and is likely always to be that way. Or, perhaps an older sibling, or a relative, could be the most influential maternal role model. The emphasis with the Gemini Moon would be on interaction rather than strict routine. This is often the sort of house where all the kids in the neighborhood like to congregate, so Shirley could learn early that the best way of being noticed is to either make a whole lot of noise or simply, "go missing". Certainly, verbal expression would be encouraged, but there could be serious competition involved in actually getting heard.

Sagittarius Ascendant

The Ascendant is the exact degree in the zodiac, which was rising on the horizon at the time of birth. The term Ascendant and Rising sign are the same. Every 4 minutes, the degree of the Ascendant changes. This is why it is so important to know the exact time of birth. This is the starting point of the astrological wheel and defines the signs on each house cusp in an anti-clockwise direction.

The actual Houses and their meanings are just as important as the signs on the cusp. The sign of the Ascendant is as important as the Sun sign, and its effects are often more obvious to other people. The Ascendant represents how the personality appears to others. Each sign has its own potential strengths which should be developed, and weaknesses which should be minimized through understanding.

Shirley may run into problems if the rising sign is quite different in nature from the Sun sign. There will be conflict between an element of the inner self and the projected image. So, if any recurring social problems do occur, it is necessary to look within. The Ascendant in the chart is very important. It indicates the ways in which we interact with the world around us. The energies we put out and the energies we receive from others.

Aspects to the Ascendant indicate what kinds of interaction we experience with others, the impressions we make on people, and the areas of our life that most involve other people. Often these aspects tell us about ourselves.

This little person with The Sagittarius Ascendant is a very open and outgoing person. These kids are always quite frank and honest and can be quite blunt. They are in such a hurry that they say it as they see it and think about the consequences later - perhaps! The personality is so jovial and spontaneous. The foot in the mouth gives cause for humor rather than offence and is considered an occupational hazard with a Sagittarius Ascendant.

Shirley will be very energetic and spontaneous with a big beaming smile and an optimistic nature. The odd times when a bad mood hits, it will pass quickly. These kids do not dwell on melancholy. In fact, they are quite fazed by moods and bad attitudes. Shirley can blow a fuse if things do not go right the first time, but again, this will be short lived as they move on to greener pastures. In fact, the child with the Sagittarius Ascendant does need to learn to accept a few boundaries. Set a few limits and make them face the fact that no matter what they think, Superman is alive and well but lives somewhere else.

Often there is great sporting ability. These kids are agile and well coordinated with the tenacity and the competitiveness to put their energy to good use. They never give up. They are very fair. This child will question the rules, especially if someone is getting a raw deal, and will stand fast until the problem is cured. Bureaucrats will never scare this budding law-maker. Generally, Shirley will love the outdoors and nature from the backyard to the mountains to the sea.

These independent kids like to call the shots, They can be quite bossy at times, but the intention is not to be totally dictatorial. Shirley will always try to break loose from any controlling factors but will not inflict this sort of attitude on others either. These kids can become almost fanatical in their beliefs and can push their opinions hard, but they do believe in "live and let live".

The world will be a big classroom to these inquisitive children who can be eternal students. Shirley will love to learn and will never stop reaching out for as much information on as many subjects as can be covered into a lifetime. In turn, these kids will also love to share. Shirley could become a great teacher in adulthood.

This child will pick up all the ammunition from the home environment to be able to utilize and understand how sensitivity, caring, and compassion work. It is highly likely, though, that they will have to accept a lot of responsibility in the home. Maybe the "Mother" figure needs help and support in some way. Often a child with this Ascendant misses out a bit on being a kid because they are needed in some way. The childhood fun stuff has to go on hold. If this is the case, Shirley will feel quite hemmed in and restricted. But the optimistic sign of Sagittarius will be content to wait for the silver lining to appear, and then they will head off to do all the things they wanted to do. No matter, they will have been soaking up all the information and experience that they have learned like a sponge, so little will be lost.

The Ruling Planet of this Chart for Shirley is the big, expansive, benevolent planet Jupiter - the ruler of Sagittarius and these effects will show strongly in the personality. The House it falls in will show where the energy is used fully.

Sun in Taurus

The Sun in the Chart is our personal light. It is our vitality, our creativity, and our basic ego. The Sun represents our individuality. Within the Sun sign is our reason for being, our sense of pride, and our confidence. The sign occupied by the Sun at birth describes the nature of these basic drives and patterns. It describes the desire to be important to the people that matter and the ability to be independent and self-reliant. The House will describe the areas of life that will be important and play a major role in our lives.

Positive aspects to the Sun (trines, conjunctions or sextiles) are good indicators of self-reliance, confidence and the ability to stand on one's own two feet. The difficult aspects (squares, oppositions, and inconjunctions) will suggest psychological problems which can have a profound effect on life. However, learning to deal with these difficulties ultimately produces strength and understanding of the self. The rewards of working through these problems are great. The efforts will be productive. Sure, work is needed, but it is worth the effort. However, whenever the planet Saturn brushes up against the Sun, it will suppress and depress the energy of the most exuberant Sun sign.

The Sun is the "self", the "life path", the "true" personality behind all the facades and defenses we all put up.

The child will start to grow into the Sun sign during adolescence which can be another reason why these years can be so dramatic and traumatic - this is just another set of growing pains that we all have to endure. The actual Sun sign is often not fully developed until nearer 30 years of age, but the inner spirit will emerge and glimpses will be seen throughout the growing years.

Shirley has the Sun sign in Taurus, which is symbolized by the Bull. The Taurus child is a patient and deliberate worker that can seem to be a "plodder". But do not try to rush this child. The learning process is thorough, and all that is learned will be retained. These are generally good students. They will work for as long as it takes to complete any project, and the result will be their very, very best. Do not forget to heap on the praise for effort and achievements. Shirley will be just bursting with pride waiting for your approval. The Taurean child is loving and will need lots of cuddles and a bit of "special" time with Mom or Dad that is exclusively "for them".

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

These kids prefer a routine; in fact, they do not like change. So, if there are ever any major changes coming up, give plenty of warning and a few explanations so that they have time to adjust. Even minor changes, like going out on Saturday night, will go down better if you "advise" this little one in advance. Shirley will thrive on basic security and worry more than most if that precious personal security is threatened. These kids like to feel trusted as much as they like to feel totally involved in all that is happening around them.

Generally these kids are very placid but when aroused - just think of the bull in the China shop. Shirley will come out with all guns blazing. When these kids do "lose it" it can be a shattering experience because it seems quite out of character. And when the bull puts its head down and charges, there is little time to escape. Be warned of a very long memory. This little one never forgets. Watch for a very stubborn and a rather self-righteous nature.

These children can also want everything they see and will keep the pressure on until they get what they want. However, they will also be willing to do little jobs to "earn" the money to pay their own way. These kids do prize their possessions and will look after what they have. Possessiveness is a common problem, so you will need to put a bit of effort into training how to share. Maybe drop in the hint that in sharing with others, their friends will share too, making the available pool much "bigger".

As a young child, Shirley will probably respond well to soft toys and lots of colorful things. These kids respond to the sensual - smells, sounds, touch, and, of course, taste. Shirley is bound to just love food. Any interest in artistic or musical ventures should be encouraged as these children have natural creative bent.

If there are several planets in the signs immediately before or after Taurus (Aries or Gemini,) Shirley will be more volatile and more active.

Sun in Taurus, Sun in the Fifth House

The Sun in the 5th House is a powerful placement simply because this is where the mighty Sun feels "at home". This is the house of creativity, self-expression, and pleasure. It can be said that what is revealed in the 5th House is the beginning of searching and finding our own true identity.

This little person with the Sun in Taurus in the fifth House will be rather quiet and self-conscious, but will have a strong personality. These kids are emotional. They like to be in control. They like the house and the routine to run like a well-oiled machine. In many ways, Shirley likes to call the shots and set the scene, and will throw a glorious mood if this does not happen. The sign of the bull is stubborn and set in its ways.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley will want to be noticed and appreciated, especially by parents and family. This child will always be well-presented and puts a lot of energy into trying to please. There is natural good taste and flair for color and coordination, which will achieve some sensational results if encouraged. The Sun in the fifth House points to a very creative person and this is perhaps where Shirley will shine. There is a gift for expression - even the "voice" can emit something remarkable that gets attention.

Shirley will have an intelligent sense of humor and a clever sense of fun, but the attitude can be sardonic. When making a point there is often a subtle truth that belies the "humor". This is more of a communicative tool than a "fun thing". However, as Shirley matures this can change. This can be a very clever comedian with a great wit and sense of irony. Shirley can learn to use the satirical gift in a very entertaining way. These children have enormous pride, so when Shirley is the butt of a joke or not taken seriously, the caustic tongue will spring into action. The self-righteous side of the nature will soon stop the foe in their tracks. Image is a strong character trait and the feathers will get badly ruffled if the dignity is threatened. The personality becomes quite difficult when challenged. But when these kids mature, friends will recognize and appreciate the deep sincerity of the inner person. There is a strong sense of honesty and a very direct approach. Shirley will be straight up and, consequently, rather outspoken. But friends trust and respect the obvious integrity.

This disposition usually attracts many friends, but watch for a tendency to be dictatorial. Shirley has a strong personality that can be a little over-bearing at times. Strangely, there is a childlike quality attached to this position of the Sun. Because of this, there will always be a strong affinity with younger children. This can be the hallmark of a brilliant teacher as life unfolds. There is the ability to communicate skillfully by keeping the mood light without losing control of the situation.

Sun in the 5th House often suggests a child who is the "favorite". Shirley will be a charming kid with a powerful presence. The personality is gracious and the mind is sharp which helps to secure the role of the one that everyone loves and admires. However, the effect is that Shirley may soon learn that anything can be achieved with little effort. This may present little problem at all, but there is the possibility that later in life Shirley could withdraw simply because the effort is too much.

Shirley sets high standards and expects the same of others. Shirley will be very strong-minded, so is well equipped to go it alone if necessary. Certainly this independent kid will prefer no company at all to company that is incompatible or uninteresting. There is a whole lot of dignity attached to the Taurus Sun in the 5th House. However, these kids can be a little demanding and struggle to let the emotions run freely.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Moon in Gemini

The Moon is our instinctive, emotional response. It is the innermost feelings and sensitivities that stem from the subconscious. Our Moon will always be our natural reaction when our defenses are down. The Moon reflects our early conditioning, our habits, and the automatic responses that come from our early environment. Often all of this relates directly to the "Mother" figure. It is perhaps the "child" in all of us.

In reading a child's chart, the Moon, in the house, the sign and the aspects, needs to be given special understanding. These are the indications on where Shirley could need special attention very early, to cope with feelings of insecurity, lack of confidence, or a low self-esteem. Recognizing these needs, and working through them, will help to produce a secure and confident adult.

The Moon often reflects the "Mother figure" in our lives, which is consequently why the Moon figures so strongly in a child's chart. The placement of the Moon often describes the relationship with the Mother, which is why the "Mother" is mentioned in many areas of the Moon explanations.

The Moon sign is the more noticeable personality trait in the formative years. We tend to "grow into our Sun sign as we develop and become the person we were meant to be. The Moon in the Chart signifies the unconscious attitudes and feelings and whether or not we feel supported and accepted. It is also the accumulated attitude reflected by our own past and the historical past. The Moon will echo values and instincts that are picked up from our early environmental experiences.

This luminary is the most important factor after the influences of the Sun and the Ascendant. It describes how we express our emotions and how well we deal with them. In some cases, the ever-important Sun can put up some defenses against the Moon. When very different, we can struggle to assimilate our emotions and our reason. Like the other planets, the Moon has strong and weak points in any sign, and we should try to develop the strong points. If the Moon is in compatible company, we will express our emotions very easily and we will be sensitive to other people's needs and feelings. With competition, the Moon can mean that there can be difficulty letting our feelings flow. The Moon and the Ascendant can be of an awkward mix, making the projected personality, and how we actually feel inside, quite different. But, this is all a part of the character and we are well able to bind the differences and round off the disposition. The Moon and the emotional problems it produces can sound negative but this is not so. This is a beautiful and fundamental part of our deepest psyche that we must all accept and use to its fullest advantage.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley has the Moon in the sign of Gemini. This child is likely to start talking quite early and once started, may never stop. They just love company, so the worst fate for them is to be alone. In fact, it is a good idea to introduce this little one to people outside of the family early. Encourage even "baby" company early, and certainly a playgroup or such before formal schooling begins. These kids can keep themselves occupied, but they do like to have someone there. They are so friendly and sociable, and will accumulate a lot of friends because they truly like people, and everyone likes them. Being "true" to one friend can be difficult, and this can apply in adulthood. The emotions change rapidly and there is a real restlessness.

This child gets bored so easily. The mind wanders and there is a difficulty maintaining a fixed interest for long. These are the intellectual butterflies. They will enjoy reading, music, microphones, computers, but they want to be free to bounce off and do whatever takes their fancy too. This child is very curious and will need to learn new things to stimulate the very active mind. They like to go to new places and meet new people. Shirley will know the neighborhood and the neighbors better than anyone in a very short time. There is nothing sacred with this chatty child. They will tell you their deepest secrets with no holds barred, so bear this in mind if you are discussing anything confidential. Shirley will like nothing better than to pass on a bit of gossip. In fact, there could be a need to guide a little learning on how to keep a secret and, later, to use some discretion. These kids do need to learn, without stifling this great communication gift, that not everyone wants to listen to them all of the time. These kids are articulate and witty with a happy and easy-going nature.

Shirley will gather an abundance of knowledge, but will need to be taught to complete projects. There is a need to develop the concentration span. Discipline the impatient urge to leave a whole lot of things half done. As these children develop, the intellect will control the emotions, giving them sound and logical judgement.

This will be a real fun child to have around, very entertaining and very witty. However, the Gemini Moon can suffer from nerves too and have some anxious moments. When in a particularly hyper mood, Shirley could actually be quite uptight and strung out for some reason. These kids can be sarcastic and often exhausting mentally for the rest of the family. But Shirley will be an experience.

Moon in Gemini, Moon in the Seventh House

Shirley has the Moon in Gemini in the 7th House. These kids are sensitive with deep emotions and emotional needs. They do have a strong character. They can be demanding and they can be irrational. But this is the way they combat fear and apprehension. They get mad at themselves. These kids tend to gravitate toward friends who are caring and who are not afraid to share how they feel. They will seem to know instinctively with whom they will get along and with whom they will not. Friends are important to Shirley, and strong and close attachments will be cemented from an early age. Interaction and solid attachments are a fundamental need, vital to growth and development. But, these kids will always be looking for personal security, although they may not be aware of this. The "mother" influence is strong with the Gemini Moon in this house, and Shirley could feel that this relationship is lacking in some way. Friends can be used to fill the gap that perhaps only Shirley is aware of. Because of this emotional dependency, this Moon placement often marries early (in haste), and of course, can repent at leisure. Again, partners can be a substitute "mother".

But these kids can fall into the trap of "putting up" with too much. They do need to develop the confidence to quit while they are ahead, rather than stay in a relationship too long. This restless Moon can be guilty of having several "lives" running at the same time in adulthood. The natural curiosity has the antennae raised in anticipation of the advantages of fresh and new pastures. And the reluctance to accept closure adds to the excitement and stalls the decision to be totally open. Shirley can actually learn to enjoy the thrill of controversy. These types can be gamblers, they are not afraid to take a chance and whilst there is seldom vindictiveness involved, the mystery and the intrigue can be the way to satisfy inner hunger.

These kids crave warmth and affection, but it can be a commodity that they struggle to understand. The Gemini Moon usually learns to rationalize the emotions very well as life unfolds. But, the expectation of love tends to be highly idealistic, so there is ultimately a disappointment when the initial love glow becomes simply another day. Shirley can be looking for eternal paradise - that would be wonderful, but is neither practical nor possible. The Gemini Moon can become a philanderer in an effort to find the "perfect mate", or alternatively, never truly feel satisfied no matter how good the relationship might be.

Shirley will always be in demand socially, with the ability to fit in just about anywhere. This little character is "charm" personified. The personality suggests confidence and a highly capable nature, but this is deceiving. Shirley needs encouragement to be more independent. These kids need to try to learn to enjoy their own company, now and again, and not be afraid to be alone. There is a strong desire for social acceptance - so these kids will always put their best foot forward. They like to be well-presented, as appearances are very important to the morale and ego, and first impressions can make a valuable statement. Shirley will need to learn not to rely quite so much on others and what others think. This versatile chameleon can go through life playing a part that denies to the true character the light of day that it deserves.

Mercury in Aries

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The little planet Mercury is the mythical Messenger of the Gods. This planet is never far away from the Sun, often falling in the same sign at the time of birth, so it does tend to add emphasis to our Sun Sign. Even when Mercury is in the sign before or after the Sun, this is always considered a very personal planet.

Through Mercury, we learn all the basics in life. It indicates how we communicate, because it is here where we begin to watch and copy the rest of the family. This is the very beginning of questions and curiosity that fires up and fuels the learning process. From that point, we move on to recognizing the senses, and so our personal tastes and style develops. We learn how to exchange ideas and show how clever we are. We start to question and analyze. We learn to reason and classify what we have absorbed and then stretch for more information.

Mercury is our first experience of moving out into the world beyond the back yard, armed with all that we have learned. Through this planet, our flexibility and dexterity is revealed. This planet covers the intellectual stimuli but it also has a say in how clever we are with our hands and how well balanced we are physically.

Mercury is also associated with the nervous system. This is a busy little planet at the best of times, and responsible for a big part of our intrinsic character. When put under too much pressure, the nervous system buckles. Mercury is indicative of our sense of humor, the body language we exude, and our powers of expression. This is the planet of logic and reason. So, Mercury is indeed a very important planet. It might be tiny, but it is very potent.

With the chatty little planet Mercury in the sign of impatient Aries, this kid is likely to start talking rather early in life and, once the art has been mastered, will probably never stop. The speech is likely to be rapid-fire. There will be loads of questions, but the difficulty will be staying put long enough for a decent answer. There is just too much to do!

These children can be argumentative and they are good at it. It will be a rare occasion when Shirley is stuck for an answer. The mind moves so quickly that even a totally irrelevant response will be preferred to none at all. This can be valuable in a debating team, but it can become tedious. Shirley will be decisive and capable of grasping information quickly, but can also feign ignorance as a ploy to further discussion or provoke further animated discussion. The objective is simply to add interest to the matter in hand.

Quite a few lessons will be needed to train this child not to interrupt when others are talking. The sheer sense of urgency can be forsaken for acceptable manners. The intention is not to be rude. These kids just do not have the time to wait! There will also be a great knack of jumping to conclusions too, which can be infuriating.

Shirley will tend to be impulsive with a quick temper but will probably not see or admit to it being a problem. Admitting defeat or being wrong is another difficulty. So, one good lesson that could be taught early on is to be able to admit defeat graciously.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

This mercurial planet is said to have "winged feet" and this dexterous kid is agile and energetic, both physically and mentally. Shirley will seem to have been born running and will never stop.

There is a very quick mind here and Shirley will enjoy coming up with new ideas. This child is independent and likes to be original, but more importantly, will want to be first. Only one problem - these kids always like their own ideas best and will argue the toss if they feel that their flash of inspiration has been overlooked. However, this should be a clever child, with a great wit and the ability to dazzle in the area of communications.

Mercury in Aries, Mercury in the Fifth House

This child with Mercury in Aries in the 5th House will enjoy being involved with anything that includes other kids, a challenge, or a bit of drama. Puzzles, games, role-playing, dressing up, and later the challenges of chess or bridge, will appeal to them. They will also enjoy complicated computer games that are competitive.

Company of any sort will be a real source of joy - mixing with others will give a chance to interact and develop quite a remarkable sense of strategy. Shirley is bound to have a real need to be the star of the show because these kids do like to be noticed and admired. This is an entertainer who is witty, charismatic, optimistic and highly energetic. Being clever with words, with a natural ability to read an audience, makes this a great raconteur. Shirley will be able to spin a tale with unabashed embellishments to make any good story even better. An attentive audience will really ignite Shirley and Shirley will indeed be amusing.

These children love to read and study. This can be fun for them rather than work BUT it must be through their choice. So, if there happens to be a subject that is considered very important, and Shirley is not interested, try to turn it into fun, and then you will get results. The communicative and written skills are excellent. This could well be an indicator of what Shirley will do in adult life. Obviously, this area needs to be given plenty of air, space, and encouragement.

Often these types thrive on adversity and take a controversial path simply to provoke interest and feedback. This is an indication of a fine teacher later in life. Complacency will always be a bore. This potential daredevil craves an interesting life that moves at a good pace. Fast cars could be a future fascination.

This little one will need to learn some discipline. There is a tendency to think that no one else knows very much of anything. Shirley will feel more comfortable in a learning environment that encourages individual input and supports interaction. Any sort of activity that includes expression, like music, dance, or drama, will help to teach discipline and enhance the gifts of this budding performer.

Shirley will probably be a gifted teacher who simply loves to share experiences and knowledge. These types will always stay in touch with changing technology and moving times. For this reason, Shirley will always have an affinity for and an understanding of the younger generation.

This mercurial planet is said to have "winged feet" and this dexterous kid is agile and energetic, both physically and mentally. Shirley will seem to have been born running and will never stop.

There is a very quick mind here and Shirley will enjoy coming up with new ideas. This child is independent and likes to be original, but more importantly, will want to be first. Only one problem - these kids always like their own ideas best and will argue the toss if they feel that their flash of inspiration has been overlooked. However, this should be a clever child, with a great wit and the ability to dazzle in the area of communications.

Venus in Aries

Venus is the planet of love. This tiny planet is responsible for the stirring of the soft and sensual pleasures of nature. Venus opens the doors of appreciation to beauty, harmony, creativity, and of course, love, and affection. Venus arouses and stimulates our senses.

Venus is important because it shows how youngsters interact. It is where children learn to share and give. Venus shows how Shirley attracts love and attention and also what and who Shirley is attracted to. This planet will indicate whether the basic nature is warm and affectionate or whether there is some reserve attached.

Venus is also about our creature comforts and possessions - what we need in life to feel good. Venus indicates our creativity and artistic talents and the ability to appreciate beauty. Good, bad, or unusual taste will be seen through Venus.

The house that Venus is in indicates the area in which artistic talent is expressed. This is where the expressions of sensual understanding will be valid and utilized. It can also suggest where Shirley may need special attention and nourishment, in order to learn how to interact with others.

For future reference, Venus in the signs, houses and aspects will be quite revealing about relationships with the opposite sex and matters of the heart.

With the planet of love, Venus, in the impatient sign of Aries, Shirley will be demonstrative and very enthusiastic when it comes to the people that matter. These children can treat relationships as a bit of a game and they hate to lose. They will never be afraid to make the first move. If they like someone and think that this could be some fun company, they will skip the formalities and make a new 'best friend' in an instant.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley will be very warm, very affectionate, and not afraid to be openly expressive. The nature can be cute and rather flirtatious. Shirley will choose the friends that appeal to the buoyant and exciting nature. Adults will not manipulate this child into mixing with children they don't personally enjoy. These children often don't care too much about the popularity stakes. They don't go out of their way to impress anyone, but the honest personality is usually totally accepted and liked anyway.

Shirley will appreciate the good things in life and this is exactly what this little person will expect. And what is more, they usually get just what they want. There can be a degree of vanity and a tendency to be a bit selfish. But this is not in an obvious or 'nasty' way. The ego is large and needs to be fed.

Shirley will be drawn to bright bold colors, and should have a good sense of rhythm, enjoying both music and dance. During the adolescent years the choice of music will be constant - and loud.

Many people with Venus in Aries (at a later stage) tend to marry early - in haste - and repent at leisure. They are socially outgoing and have a generally happy outlook on life with the ability to attract many friends and admirers. There is nothing shy or reserved about these youngsters. They can, however, be too demanding. If this is not addressed and pointed out to them, they can have problems with their friendships right through life. It is while they are young that they can learn how to compromise.

Venus in Aries, Venus in the Fifth House

Shirley has Venus in Aries in the Fifth House, which gives a very appealing and romantic nature, with a general love of life. These children are popular and well liked, because they work hard at getting the best out of every day and every experience. They are competitive, energetic and dramatic. Shirley will like activities that indulge the senses. These children like to feel good and they like to perform. Personal choice will always revolve around "fun". There could be artistic ability here, but even if Shirley does not have any artistic talent, there will be an appreciation of art and music as hobbies.

This child wants to be the star, and can be reluctant to apply effort if there are no shining rewards. There can be some inertia and lack of interest if there is no personal agenda. This area could need some work. Try encouraging this little one to think of others a bit more, and not be so reluctant to work in as part of the team. Shirley must be taught this early. These traits can spoil an otherwise sunny and infectious personality. Image is important to Shirley so there will be a willingness to learn to be even "better" than ever. Shirley will take all the helpful hints on board. Often athletic ability accompanies Venus in the 5th House in Aries. It could be in the area of sport where Shirley will learn to share the limelight. It could also further enhance the ego and the vanity if there is a real talent. The competitive edge can be motivated by an attitude that involves winning at any cost.

Shirley will be more than a little attracted to the opposite sex when the hormones kick in. This can be an utterly charming flirt who will prefer the opposite sex as constant company. This child will be quite magnetic and have no trouble attracting their share of admirers, so choice should not be a problem. This house creates a romantic idealist who falls in love at the drop of a hat but can be sorely disappointed when reality hits home. Consequently when the hues of passion turn into just another day, these types feel robbed. However, this optimist will seldom be "down" for long. The creative imagination will seek a way of rekindling the romantic fire, or finding another exciting alternative.

In adulthood, this person could well work with children. There is an ability to "get through" to children. Venus in the Fifth House does indicate a Peter Pan of sorts. These types often seem to never get "old". They are also susceptible to a real "mid life crisis" when the time comes. They feel threatened when the joys of youth seem to be slipping away. The playful nature does not fade with time and neither does the optimism.

Mars in Pisces

Mars is essentially the "I am" in us. It is the "I -me -and -mine" - the basic, subjective ego. It is our energy, our initiative, and our drive. It is our aggression, our temperament, and our passion. Mars is the physical side of our psyche. A strong Mars makes for great sports people because they will be competitive with a real desire to win. Later in life, Mars indicates our sex drive.

This is a fiery little planet, so a strong Mars is a "fiery" little person who runs on high octane - one who will never know when to stop. The "water signs" can dilute this energy somewhat, or can perhaps drive the passion inward. The "fire" will then not be so obvious. However, once we get the hang of our Mars sign, it is an important part of us. It is the fuel on which we run.

Mars in Pisces produces emotions that are unpredictable and often intense. Much of the fire of Mars is drowned here. Shirley will be quite sensitive, and when feeling sad or unhappy, will not have much energy. People with Mars in Pisces often need a lot of sleep. Their emotions, and sometimes the emotions of others, wear them out.

The major problem with this position is that it is difficult for these children to be very self-assertive. They will let people take advantage of them. They do not have the confidence to express opinions, or act independently without approval. Shirley will shrink from people who are overbearing. The instinct will be to either ignore these people altogether or try to get around them furtively. These delicate youngsters simply do not know how to cope. Shirley needs that confidence to be encouraged and coaxed.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley will not be interested in strenuous physical activity. Maybe water sports or skating might appeal to them. This dreamy child will be more at home with their own imagination than competing for medals or honors. There will not be a great need to be the best, or terribly successful. Music, dance lessons, or art classes could be a good idea for Shirley.

The early teenage years and adolescence can be difficult for these pre-teens. The awakening of the hormones can be powerful, and perhaps, overpowering for Shirley. There can be a major struggle with learning how to identify in a positive and confident way with the opposite sex. Shirley can have feelings of inferiority both on a physical and communicative plane. A real interest in the opposite sex could be a slow process.

As these children get older, they will feel more secure. Shirley will be extremely unselfish and will do things for others with little consideration for self. These children can be successful and do have plenty of potential, but they lack a burning desire to win at any cost. In addition, their natural inclination is to "give." Those who have benefited from this generosity will often return it to Shirley three-fold. That is unless this child takes the attitude that the world owes them a living. Then Shirley is likely to start to keep a secret tally on who owes what. This can make for a rather bitter adult but this is not a common trait. This is just a possibility with this placement.

Many medics have this placement of Mars.

Mars in Pisces, Mars in the Third House

Shirley has Mars in Pisces in the Third House. These children will have a keen intellect and often talk quickly in a rush to say what is on their mind. They like to argue. Shirley will have quite amazing mental dexterity. The versatility will be both helpful (later) and quite maddening, sometimes at the same time. This youngster will always want to get in the last word. This little mind works quite quickly because there is a lot of mental energy brewing here. Shirley will actually learn a great deal through arguing if channeled positively. A dogmatic attitude may be useful on a debating team, but not in life.

These youngsters jump to conclusions, and then have difficulty backing down. Teach Shirley that it is OK to occasionally say, "I was wrong." These kids can imagine slights and hurts and be accusing when there is no foundation. They can make mountains out of molehills. When young, these children can have quite a few disagreements with any brothers or sisters. Relatives seem to provoke this child. This could be a home environment where everyone has to yell to be heard, and Shirley soon learns to yell the loudest, or sulk the longest. These youngsters can have sharp and caustic tongues and are often very outspoken. They can inflict hurt, although this would not be the intention at all. This is a defense mechanism at work. Tact, diplomacy, and being less self-absorbed are the virtues for this little one to learn early on. It will make life easier for them and for those around them.

Shirley is highly curious and will be something of an explorer who likes to tread a unique path. These are the types that set records in a quest to be "first". These kids actually see life as a series of experimental challenges that stretch the mind and the energy. The deepest desire here for Shirley is to learn; but to be considered relevant, it is "hands on" learning that counts.

Probably a sheer determination can make this child seem more aggressive verbally than they truly intend to be. Dexterity of both the mind and the body makes this an interesting and live wire kid who is both entertaining and diverse. Sport can be a wonderful outlet that draws on all the positives that Mars offers.

Jupiter in Aries

Jupiter is a slower moving planet that stays in the same sign for about a year. Its sign has a direct personal effect only when it is in close aspect to the Ascendant or Midheaven, or forms a strong aspect with one of the personal planets. Jupiter is the planet of expansion, growth, and often, luck.

The house position of Jupiter relates to areas of life in which we will want to grow. It shows the area in which we are likely to think positively and optimistically. In a general sense, things work well for us in the house that Jupiter occupies. The keyword for Jupiter is expansion. That can be physically, mentally, or spiritually. Jupiter's position can relate to the expansion of assets relating to financial freedom, or perhaps, even, weight.

Jupiter is in Aries so Shirley should be enthusiastic, generous, assertive, and highly energetic. These kids will develop and grow through a sheer love of learning and discovery. They will constantly be reaching out for new experiences. Competitive sport will utilize this energy beautifully.

Shirley will have the confidence to allow any talents to shine through. There may need to be a bit of a pointer on learning to accept limitations. These kids can overdo things and set their sights too high. Try not to inhibit this child too much though. To try and stamp out the confidence or energy could have quite an adverse affect. Then Shirley will feel that the energy and optimism is wrong. This natural exuberance is a valuable part of the nature. If this energy is suppressed or dampened down too much, it can emerge later in life as aggression. Shirley will not be able to use the vitality in the way that it should be used. In adulthood, this is a good placement for a successful businessperson. Good decision making comes easily as does a sound sense of responsibility and foresight.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Jupiter in Aries, Jupiter in the Fifth House

Shirley has Jupiter in Aries in the Fifth House, which suggests an optimistic and cheerful temperament. These kids want to taste as much of the world as possible. They do need to be free to find their own way in life and do not like anyone to restrict them. They want to do it "their way"; Shirley has the stubbornness to thwart any attempts to persuade otherwise. The word power will be strong and utterly convincing. Dictatorial can spring to mind.

Shirley will love to be the center of attention and will never be short of an answer or an argument. There is a big ego and something of a thespian lurking in the wings. These kids can put on a good act. They can play the "good guy/ bad guy" role with conviction and passion. They like to be noticed and admired, but they can be difficult at times and too demanding. Shirley will operate well within a group - with the ability to motivate others - but these kids like to call the shots.

These children should enjoy sports, either as a participant or as an observer - or even as a commentator. They are competitive and mentally strong and like to exercise their opinions. The ability to communicate effectively and comically will be apparent in both the oral and written word-power. Shirley can hold an audience. There can be a love of the outdoors and the wide-open spaces where the sky is the limit. Nature, the animal kingdom - all creatures great and small - and the wilderness can be a source of interest that goes with the love of freedom. It is also a chance to test the limits. This is a potential "universalist" with a futuristic eye and a taste for adventure. Sharing any experiences also figures on the agenda. Boredom is the worst test for Shirley. Being faithful in love can also be testing - although the intention is not to hurt. There is a gambler's instinct that may prevail.

Shirley may be quite creative and, whatever the creation, it will be done on a grand scale. These kids do not like to do anything halfway and will become well known for habitually getting carried away by enthusiasm and imagination. But this can be a good trait and should be encouraged. Shirley will gain more through supposed fun and amusements than others will through hard work. Every activity that this child attempts expands their world and gives them valuable experience and knowledge. Ideas of grandeur go with the territory here. Manipulating others to do the "hard yards" can be another gift that Shirley possesses.

One problem that could crop up later - Shirley can become a bit of a gambler. These kids seem to think that they just cannot lose. But Shirley should sail through life very much on strength of character and sheer optimism. The nature will be very honest, humanitarian and generous.

Saturn in Sagittarius

There are always two sides of Saturn - what is, and what can be. Saturn stays in the same sign for approximately two and a half years, so all of the children born around the same time as Shirley will show the same characteristics. Saturn in the sign is therefore personal only when forming one or more aspect(s) with the personal planets, the Ascendant, or the Midheaven.

Read these aspects thoroughly to be more aware of Saturn and what it has to teach this child.

Saturn is all about progress, but it is the slow and sure progress - nothing happens quickly with this rather severe planet. This is where we learn the art of survival. Saturn makes us stop, look, and listen and not go rushing in. This is where we come up against brick walls, where we have to review the lessons learned and modify the next move. Saturn makes us accept responsibility, accept a challenge, and move forward. Saturn is the reason behind many of our fears, our sense of guilt and our sense of failure, but, again, when we beat these obstacles, we are so much wiser and stronger. The House in which Saturn falls signifies the areas where life can be tough. Nothing seems to come easily, and yet the prospects are of significance. This is the area where our fears will have to be addressed, and where our confidence will need to be lifted. Discipline and patience will be badly needed here in order for us to gain control. It is where we must stop and think, but ultimately we learn from Saturn - he is a great teacher. Saturn is often related to the father figure, or the "authority" figure that influences Shirley. Difficult aspects with Saturn often indicate problems in this area. Saturn often sounds rather negative which is not accurate. Consider Saturn as a hurdle that is there to be conquered - not as an obstacle to fear.

Shirley has the planet, Saturn, in bold sign of Sagittarius. Saturn puts some limitations on the exuberant Sagittarius. The attitude will be quite serious. The ethical and moral approach to life will always be very strong, in fact, almost staunch.

These kids will have quite a deep and penetrating mind but will put a whole lot of thought into their work and theories. Once an idea is formed, the attitude can be dogmatic with a stubborn reluctance to expand or move on those opinions. So much effort goes in to reaching a conclusion that Shirley will be horrified to think that even the smallest point could have been missed. There can be an almost self-righteous approach to life and philosophies.

Shirley will live by a set of principles that are very high. There will be a natural respect for authority and the establishment. The basic belief structure will be in tune with traditional. Later in life, Shirley could need to face a major challenge with religious or philosophical views.

The ambition will be to learn and to reach out intellectually, but the necessary openings might not come easily. Maybe Shirley is too hesitant to grab the chances that crop up, or perhaps the right time and the right place just simply does not happen. Reputation is very important.

This combination can be helped with encouragement to broaden the outlook. Teach Shirley that true learning comes from an open mind and being receptive to alternative ideas. If this child can widen those horizons and reach for the stars, the intellectual mind will be as expansive and as limitless as the universe that is out there.

Saturn in Sagittarius, Saturn in the First House

With Saturn in Sagittarius in the First House, the projected personality can come across as solemn to the point of being quite difficult to reach. These kids seem to be born with a sense of responsibility and with a need to be taken seriously and treated with respect. This could be an eldest child - or perhaps one that is expected to take on more than a fair share of responsibility at a tender age. The parents and the family could lead very busy lives. There could be a health problem early in life that sets the scene for this intensity. Sometimes the parent(s) will go through hard times that will take a toll on everyone. But often these kids can feel robbed of a childhood for some reason. There can be an inferiority complex, which can stem from feeling unimportant or simply trying too hard to please. This is usually an old head on young shoulders. Childhood can actually be quite a lonely time. Shirley will have a head full of ideas, but there is a heart that is just a little heavy because confidence will not be a natural trait.

However, through adversity comes the ability to gain a solid sense of what is important. Shirley will learn many hard lessons throughout childhood, but the experience will seldom be lost. In amongst the seeming negativity there will be a subconscious need to achieve. These kids will want to reach for the impossible. Later in life, these people are highly disciplined and will be able to achieve a whole lot more than many others with the same chances. But the danger is that Shirley can set the sights too high, subsequently facing frustrations and disappointments. Try to train this child early to be happy with good results. Having ambition and goals is great - but continually competing or striving for an impossible perfection can take a lot of the fun out of living and being a child. Placing too much responsibility, or expecting more than Shirley can naturally give, could set a tone for life. Instilling a natural sense of self-esteem is what is needed.

As life evolves, there will be times when the effects of Saturn will be felt. Shirley will be reminded of the sense of inadequacy that was felt, at times, during the formative years. Those that are close at hand can feel shut out and unable to fill the void. However, with understanding - with accepting that this is life unfolding as per the heavenly teacher - Shirley will emerge wiser and aware of the valuable lessons that will have been learned. Out of an apparent negative, a true positive can be found where Saturn is concerned.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

These kids will be prone to outbursts of temper and heavy moods until they come to terms with an inner frustration. This is not an easy place for Saturn - life will seem like an obstacle race at times. People with this placement will wonder why, at least now and again, they cannot be in the right place at the right time. Somehow life never seems to run smoothly. But Saturn in Sagittarius can break through and turn all this into positive and progressive energy.

A big bonus is that, as adults, these people age rather slowly. They hold their age well and often enjoy their later years a whole lot more than they do their childhood years. True self-respect, self esteem and success may be a long time coming - but it will come to Shirley. With Saturn in the fiery sign of Sagittarius, Shirley may need encouragement in order to ignite the energy and enthusiasm.

Uranus in Aries

Uranus is a huge planet that has the reputation for causing all sorts of chaos. Uranus has a mind of its own, racing around in space on its side and with an orbit that is unpredictable. Uranus is very difficult to spot with the naked eye. Similarly, the Uranian traits are quite difficult to 'spot'.

This 'cranky' planet brings change - unexpected, sudden and completely disruptive change. It can be the source of disasters or miracles. The function of Uranus is to disrupt our view of reality, and give us an alternative view beyond the known and the visible. Uranus provides sudden flashes of insight and creative genius, as well as practiced eccentricity. Uranus has the ability to shake up the comfort of the 'norm' and catapult us into a rather scary future.

This planet stays in each sign for about 7 years so is considered one of the slow movers. The qualities that stem from the sign that Uranus is in will affect all of the children in the same era as Shirley. As the slow moving planets move from sign to sign, the differences will be subtle, but they will loosely apply to the philosophy and the attitudes of the child concerned.

Uranus in the House is a whole lot more personal. This will be where Shirley will display a uniqueness of character. It will be where the intuition is heightened, and the need to be 'different' will be apparent. It can be the area where Shirley is subjected to major changes and disruptions over which there is no control. The issues that apply to the house that Uranus falls in can involve a lifetime struggle to conquer and understand.

Shirley belongs to a generation with the planet Uranus in Aries, indicating a headstrong, impetuous nature, for whom individual freedom is very important. These children have their own inner light. They seem to march to the beat of a different drum. 'Their way' is seldom in tune with rules or guidelines imposed by outside authority. Teachers and those in authority can despair, as there will be little respect for hierarchy or tradition. Rules, to this child, have to make real sense before they are given any credence at all, and even then, those rules are very likely to be modified.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Somehow, Shirley will need to be trained to apply a little bit of discipline and 'fit in' now and again. These children will always fight for their freedom in every way, but a bit of compromise has to be learned as well. If Shirley simply goes through childhood always calling the shots, it will be a lost and lonely path up ahead. This little one should have a clever mind, maybe with technical or electronic know-how, but even systems have 'rules'.

Uranus in the Fourth House

4th House: This House is about the early home environment, the 'Mother' influence, and the family. This is the House where traditions are set and preserved. This is where basic development begins and where lifetime habits are formed. This House is all about nurturing.

Shirley has the unpredictable planet Uranus in the 4th House. Often this can suggest that the early environment can be fraught with changes. There could be changes in residence, family patterns - even changes in the family. It could be that Shirley never quite feels settled. Shirley may have been adopted, or simply feel adopted by way of an explanation. One of the parents may be distant, different, or even absent. Shirley could feel a lack of parental love and caring. The child/parent rapport can be quite unusual where role reversal becomes the pattern. But, if there is caring and support within the home environment, even if it is not traditional and conventional, this should not pose a major problem. Shirley will grow up feeling well equipped to handle any changes that life might bring.

At best, this is a sign of a free spirit. But coping with many differences can cause strain from time to time.

Shirley will also want to break away and be free from quite a young age. These children want to make their own decisions and set their own pace. However, this could well be the sort of adult that will not be particularly interested in acquiring too many assets that will bog them down. Shirley could adopt a rather unusual lifestyle and will care little for what other people think. This person does not try to please.

Neptune in the Ninth House

9th House: This House reflects the influence and the encouragement from teachers, like report cards, recognition of ability - or lack of needed encouragement and advice. This House is about the development of self-esteem. It is about seeking and sharing knowledge. It is about developing skills and setting goals. It is about expanding on what today offers and taking it into the future.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley has the planet Neptune in the Ninth House so will be idealistic with a head full of wonderful dreams. This impressionable kid is truly "tuned in" and will have incredible intuition. These kids are actually quite mystical in a way. Their minds are receptive to different cultures, the world of fantasy, and the universe at large. The questions asked in earnest by Shirley will be related to the deep and mysterious for which there are few concrete answers. Like the eerie and strange stuff - like angels, ghosts, the supernatural - life on Mars - and beyond. Shirley will always search for deep and spiritual meanings, seeking answers to the obscure. These kids are attracted to the big, big picture. This will stir the imagination to the hilt. The ideas may not be very realistic - but get Shirley to write the stories down. The expression should be vivid and clever. Education will be a very fundamental part of life for this child.

In adulthood, Shirley could become involved with a religion, although these religious beliefs are unlikely to be of the orthodox variety. More likely the beliefs will be of another culture altogether or one of the more modern sects.

These kids can seem to be quite impractical because their heads are full of obscure stuff rather than the mundane. The attraction will always be in the realms of far-out and deep, and it may be noted that it is the "difference" that is the attraction. Shirley can work hard to create the illusion of sincere interest in an attempt to be seen as deep and mysterious rather than being truly intellectually motivated. The tendency to exaggerate can cloud good judgement.

This position indicates faith in all its good and bad meanings. The big positive of Neptune here is that this will always be an earnestly compassionate person. Shirley is a person who will express concern and extend kindness towards mankind in all its forms. This is a sign of a very non-judgmental nature. Faith and optimism will always be strong.

Later in life, Shirley will love to travel, either physically or mentally. The attraction will be for exotic and "different" parts of the world. The idea will be to experience the different cultures and traditions in order to broaden the philosophies. However, all this is often done without actually "physically" going all that far at all.

Pluto in the Eighth House

8th House: This House is about parent's values and the provisions they make. psychological input from parents. It is about secrets, subliminal learning and deep changes. Lessons from this House lead to profound understandings often bought about by inevitable change. It is the stirring of new beginnings and the ashes of the past.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Pluto in the Eighth House can seem tough going for a child as life will seem to go through periods of very intense and deep change. Shirley will seem to be always aware of something inside pushing growth and new directions. There will be enormous depth and exceptional self-control which will make Shirley implacable when on a set path. No one will stop this youngster. When crossed, Shirley will never forget.

Shirley could have a real fascination with the subject of life and death. But this interest is not morbid; it is simply a part of building up the reason for existence. Shirley has the same fascination with any sort of mystery and will dig and probe to find answers. This child will have very deep and very serious interests for one so young. These kids simply need to know and will go to any lengths to find acceptable answers to all their questions. This is more than casual curiosity. It is a deep psychological drive within them; it does have an absolute purpose.

There will be a definite interest in the metaphysical. There is quite likely to be quite strong clairvoyant abilities and most certainly deep insights and extraordinary perception. Later in life, there can certainly be monetary upheavals somewhere along the way - because this is, the house of shared resources too.

Planets in Aspect

EXPLANATION OF THE ASPECTS

An explanation of the Aspects: These are very important in any natal chart. It is when 2 or more planets "make connection" with each other. To be of significance, the "orb" or degree of this connection, must be relatively close. All the Aspects are of significance, but some are more powerful than are others. And, of course, they all have different meanings.

All of the aspects that are relevant are automatically listed in order of strength. Obviously, the higher the strength the more relevant and potent the aspect.

Conjunction: A powerful and dynamic aspect. This is when two or more planets are sitting right next to each other and they will either back each other up, or compete against each other. Being in the same sign and same house adds up to a lot of weight.

Trine: A distance of 120-degrees between any planet forms a "Trine". These planets will be in the same Element so they will blend well and flow. The Trine brings comfort, ease, and benefit with little effort.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Sextile: The distance between any planets involved in a "Sextile" is 60 degrees. This aspect brings the opportunity to be productive or creative. But the energy of the Sextile must be used - it will not just "happen" Both planets will fall in either Masculine or Feminine signs, so they are compatible.

Square: There will be a 90-degree separation between any planets involved in a "Square". Here is an indication of obstacles and stress that need to be worked through. The planets "square off" against each other but - these are personal learning curves of life. These are hurdles for us to jump but through them we learn and grow. The lessons from Squares tend to be subjective. These aspects will be in signs of the same quality.

Opposition: As the name suggests, any planets that form an "opposition" will be smack bang opposite each other at 180-degrees apart. This is where one learns to compromise and give a little. The opposition usually involves other people. These lessons are quite objective. Being in polar opposite signs of the zodiac, these planets mirror each other.

Inconjunct also known as the Quincunx: This is considered a "minor" aspect but is about our personal growth and long-term development in the area of the personality. It shows us our limitations and how we can expand a little. The distance between the two celestial bodies here will be 150 degrees apart. Being relatively minor, the orb used is generally rather tight. This aspect would be almost exact to rate in this interpretation.

Uranus trine Ascendant (Strength: 6.82)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Shirley has Uranus trine the Ascendant. Even at a very early age, this little one will insist on their right to be an individual. The curiosity is highly developed, so learning through experience comes naturally. The reason for this is that Shirley will sense and visualize everything quite differently from others. These children will thrive on change and fresh things to do. This is an inquiring and inventive mind, and the need to stretch the imagination is great. Shirley will change the rules to traditional games - just to minimize boredom and put a new slant on things. Shirley could be quietly rebellious but will be recognized more as just a youngster who needs some freedom.

These children will always prefer exciting company. They like to be energized and stimulated with different points of view - different approaches - and different concepts. Kids who lack imagination and fire will be a big bore as far as Shirley is concerned.

These children will try to shock with their remarks from time to time because they enjoy stirring the more complacent people up a bit. But there is no malicious intent. Shirley will be able to give and take, loving the battle of wits and the humor.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley will have an unusual ability to survive in a fast-changing environment. There is a reluctance to be caught up in traditional methods, so forward and upwards will never faze this child. Adaptability and sheer growth will be fundamentals of this character.

Venus square Pluto (Strength: 5.59)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

With Venus, the planet of love and comfort, in square to the intense planet Pluto, Shirley will be capable of the deepest of emotions and feelings. There will also be a whole lot of difficulty attached to relationships and love. Many of the big lessons to be learned will come through interactions with others.

It is very important that this child learns to understand what makes them tick. Shirley will need to accept and address that there are powerful feelings within that can be difficult to understand and handle. Much of the impulsiveness comes from deep within, which can be baffling and difficult to understand. These children are more intense than are most children. They can form unlikely friendships that are doomed from the start, but these children won't be stopped. They simply have something to learn from that friendship. Many lessons will involve pain and disappointment. Shirley is all or nothing when it comes to love and friendships. When these children 'love', they give their all. They will be totally loyal. But they will also be quite jealous and possessive, which can cause problems. To ease some of this intensity, point Shirley towards other areas of self-expression, such as dance, music, or art. Try to encourage this child to reach outwardly and share, rather than reach inwardly too much. Try to help Shirley to release this deep passion. Try to teach Shirley to accept some limitations. The sights can be set too high and so 'less than perfect' becomes a failure rather than a jolly good effort.

This is not an easy aspect at all, but the lessons to be learned are valuable. It should not be seen as negative - just difficult.

Saturn square Midheaven (Strength: 4.90)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

With Saturn square the Midheaven, Shirley could have problems dealing with authority. These kids feel that teachers, even parents, do not accept them and are just out to make life hard. Often this child will feel very much alone and that no one really cares about them, so they withdraw. But this is not usually true. These kids get a bee in their bonnets and make it impossible for anyone to get close to them.

Shirley needs to learn to cooperate and fit in. It is also possible that this little soul is not getting the emotional support and love they need. It could stem from the home where affection is not a part of life or perhaps too many burdens are put on for some reason. Maybe expectations are too high. Somewhere along the line, this little one does need to go out into the world and find people who are warm and loving. Friends who care, share, and offer support. The bottom line is that Shirley needs to feel "good" within - to develop some confidence in the ability to achieve, and to be totally accepted by friends and peers without even trying.

It will be too easy for this child to simply retreat. If this problem of loneliness and non-acceptance is left for too long, it will be so difficult to shake. The loneliness will become a way of life which will diminish the ability to interact in any way at all.

Even in a warm and loving home environment, these kids can still prefer to remain aloof and isolated. They can actually simply prefer to be alone and feel comfortable within. This can be quite OK, but it is imperative that this is a personal choice rather than a whole set of hang-ups that have driven this child away.

Mars trine Pluto (Strength: 4.17)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Shirley has the energetic planet Mars in Trine to the powerful planet Pluto. These children will have a great deal of energy. Whatever they consider to be important in their life, they will work tirelessly to achieve. This will be an ambitious little person, who will want to get ahead, and achieve something important. Shirley will have a great deal of self-confidence. There is a natural ability to lead.

Ideas will be original and unique, so these kids will be valued within any group-type activity or project. They will try to run it their way, but these youngsters achieve this without being totally overbearing.

Shirley will have the stamina to keep going long after everyone else has called it a day. The sheer determination will not let this kid "give up," or even take a sensible break. They can get almost obsessed in what they are truly interested in.

Shirley is probably not particularly aggressive, but when a stand has been taken, this child will not back down. In any sort of confrontation, this will be a formidable opponent. These kids will never skirt around a problem - they will want to solve it, right away.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Normally, they control their anger quite well, but when they do lose their temper, it can be quite spectacular, and it usually takes a while for them to regain their composure.

During the teenage years, when puberty enters the frame, Shirley will be exposed to some very potent feelings. These young adolescents tend to enjoy this new era and often experience the hormonal change quite early. This magnetic teen will never be short of admirers and will relate very well to the opposite sex. Their passionate nature though can suffer badly when a love affair falls over.

These children are quite stubborn and not easily deterred. They respect strength and will choose friends who are independent and self-reliant, because that is their ideal. While not attracted to weak people, Shirley will have compassion for people who are trying to cope with serious problems. This deep compassion is actually a gift.

Jupiter trine Saturn (Strength: 3.80)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Shirley has the big planet Jupiter in Trine to the limitations of the planet Saturn. Both of these planets move rather slowly, so this aspect will apply to all of the children in the same age group as Shirley. Unless there are other examples, of a close association between Jupiter and Saturn, with one or more of the personal planets, this aspect should be regarded as rather "general". Jupiter expands and Saturn limits. Jupiter is optimistic while Saturn is cautious. Jupiter is confident and Saturn is suspicious. And throughout life when these two planets make a connection these kids will "feel" quite a powerful pull.

With this aspect, Shirley is willing to patiently persevere in order to accomplish something significant. Even while they are quite young, kids with this aspect are able to plan and visualize. They should be highly organized and their straightforward views will make these aspirations attainable. School results should reflect the abilities because the diligence and the patience should shine through. Discipline is generally a natural fundamental. Little time will be wasted chasing dreams. These kids know their potential and should feel quite comfortable with that.

Mercury conjunct Jupiter (Strength: 3.27)

The conjunctions add emphasis to the power, the energy, and the vitality of the planets.

With the expressive planet Mercury in conjunction to the big, expansive planet Jupiter, Shirley will have an insatiable curiosity with a natural need to learn. Jupiter expands on all it touches, and Mercury is all about communication and early learning. So, Shirley will feel the power of this aspect early in life, wanting to explore as many ideas and theories as are possible.

Shirley will have a thirst for knowledge and a need to understand fully. But the natural instinct is to cover the big picture first and then fill in the details later. Unfortunately with this aspect, there may not be a whole lot of self-discipline. There is a likelihood of being too impatient to be bothered filling in the minor details at all. Once these youngsters have a general understanding of a subject, they may feel that they have learned all they need to know. So, even with all that intelligence and intellectual energy, Shirley can sometimes skim over the heart of the matter too easily. This can show when it comes to "testing time" as poor results for such a bright kid can come as a surprise. Or Shirley will maybe do something halfway and then forget about it out of sheer boredom. The rush to cover as much ground as possible often shows up as careless work that has been thrown together. There is simply not enough time or patience to produce an expansive paper. The learning is what is the essence here. Shirley will have a great ability to share all this wisdom and knowledge in a colorful and expressive way, but the tedium of documentation can seem to be a chore and a bore. However, this charming kid will be seen as generous, open-minded, and rather bright. These traits will make Shirley a popular person no matter how perfect, or not so perfect, their detailed work, etc., is.

As an adult, Shirley will be drawn to travel and faraway countries. Jupiter, being the expansive planet, will instigate a fascination in the world at large. The interests will be universal and could lean towards law, philosophy, or the many religions of the various cultures. In so many ways, this conjunction makes the sky the limit in a learning capacity, and Shirley will be the eternal student and the willing tutor.

Mercury trine Neptune (Strength: 3.08)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

With the expressive little planet Mercury in trine to the nebulous planet Neptune, Shirley will have a rich imagination, and an abundance of creativity. This child will be a practical idealist with an intuitive mind. The eye and the mind will tune into the harsh realities of the world and recognize where improvements can be made. And Shirley is gifted with a sense of reality, so ambitions can be attainable. Shirley will see beauty in the world that other people miss. With encouragement, this child can learn to express this through writing or art.

As they get older, these children may be more interested in making their ideals real, rather than amassing a whole heap of assets. Real application can be too much effort for Shirley, who can appear to be taking the easy way, but a special vision that goes with this aspect is quite beautiful. Shirley will never go into anything with the eyes closed, so choices are simple. Ambition and accolades are not the motivation, but peace or serenity is. Superficial matters will not clutter this person's life. They will always keep their focus on the important issues.

Because the intuition is so highly developed, Shirley will learn to understand what motivates others. These kids are gentle and sensitive, but not especially naive. They would benefit from living by the sea as they will identify with the ocean and its calming effect. The sea, or the ocean, does explain the depth of this child - giving an elusive hint of the deep unknown that is often projected by their personality.

Venus trine Saturn (Strength: 2.95)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

With the romantic planet Venus in trine to the restrictions of the planet Saturn, Shirley will be a reserved child. Shirley will not seem to be very demonstrative - especially about showing the emotions or the feelings. These children choose their friends very carefully, but once they have learned to trust and to care, they will be totally loyal and loving. They may not have many friends, but the ones that they do have will be very long lasting. This will apply especially as they get older.

The nature is rather serious and mature, making Shirley seem a lot older and wiser than expected. Shirley will understand romance and love very deeply, but will keep both feet on the ground. In many ways, these children will never be totally comfortable with the party scene. They are serious and struggle with frivolity in many ways. But if they can learn to relax, and have a bit of fun, life will seem more rounded for them.

When older, Shirley will not commit easily. These people will look at all the angles. But when they do take the plunge, they will be more willing than most to put an effort into making a marriage or relationship work and last. Shirley secretly has a strong distaste of failure.

This is a good sensible aspect. This is helpful in the responsible adult, but can be restrictive for the exuberant teenager. Saturn teaches such a lot if we take note of the messages.

Sun inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 2.52)

The inconjunct (quincunx) involves the willpower and the areas where our "thinking patterns" need some work.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The child with the Sun inconjunct the Ascendant has a whole lot of difficulty letting the world see them for who they actually are. No matter how hard they try, these kids display a wrong image. As a young child, it is likely that Shirley does everything to "please" rather than behave naturally. These kids seem to feel that they are in a situation where they have no choices of their own and get to the stage where making a choice is very difficult. They feel that ideals and ideas are forced on them, and they do not know how to resist. The sheer tension will cause utter and complete confusion. Shirley will actually have a strong mind and will want to call the shots, use original ideas, and voice personal opinions, but a fear and lack of confidence stifles this ability. Consequently, these kids get uptight about it all. They can become quite deceptive. Try very early to encourage Shirley to accept that it is OK to speak up - to have an opinion. Encourage decisions whenever it is possible. Play down the wrong choices that will be inevitable and encourage Shirley to accept and, consequently, to learn through any mistakes.

As these children develop, they will find their own feet and grow into quite strong adults. But the childhood years will be so much easier if these kids are encouraged to be bold and feel free to be open and honest.

Moon sextile Neptune (Strength: 2.17)

Sextiles bring chances and opportunity. Effort is needed to realize the full potential.

Shirley has the sensitive Moon sextile to the imaginative planet Neptune. There is a lovely, rich, vivid imagination that gives these kids an amazing sense of imagery. If this child is at all artistic, they will have lots of creative ideas with which to work. Or if this is an inventive child, they will be able to come up with all sorts of wacky and wonderful contraptions. Encourage both areas. However, Shirley may be rather short on the logic and discipline that goes with study. This can limit the creative abilities. Gentle discipline to "plan" will help enormously. Any true creativity needs practical hard work as well as inspiration. So just a bit of training and guidance from a fairly young age will help. Shirley will need to keep the imaginary world clearly separate from the real world in order to really achieve. But the sense of fantasy will be quite incredible.

Shirley will have strong nurturing instincts, so will be caring and kind to anyone or anything in need. It is easy for others to appeal to the genuine sympathy that this little person has. These kids really do "feel". They are capable of true empathy, and this is one of their strongest traits. The Mother figure will probably provide strong emotional love and support, and Shirley is likely to adore and admire this role model.

A future career could involve working closely with less fortunate people This could be nursing, or institutional work, but Shirley would only be interested in a "hands on" approach. The corporate or administration area would not appeal.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

These children may well possess psychic potential. Their hunches are often accurate. They are though, very vulnerable to negative energies. Bear in mind these sensitivities when Shirley is very young because some of these experiences can be quite scary.

Pluto sextile Midheaven (Strength: 1.64)

Sextiles bring chances and opportunity. Effort is needed to realize the full potential.

Shirley has Pluto sextile Midheaven. These kids will enjoy getting to the heart of any mystery and finding out what is really going on. They will be very fond of puzzles and solving riddles - be that figuring out their friends, a situation, or just puzzle games. Shirley will truly like to dig and understand to find the answers. This child may also enjoy salvaging broken or discarded objects and making something useful out of them - a real "greenie". So, Shirley and the whole family can be surrounded by a great deal of clutter. One person's trash is another person's treasure, but this youngster will also be able to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

There will be a strong ambition to succeed. This aspect indicates a natural ability in psychology which will be a very useful tool in adulthood. It also suggests that Shirley will enjoy helping people who need advice or guidance. A lot of satisfaction can be taken from this ability to be trusted with this responsibility.

However, the knowledge that Shirley can gain in mastering the ability to "figure things and people out" can be used as a power thing. These kids will have the ability to influence others but must not use this ability to manipulate. They will be able to use this quality for such a lot of good that it would be a shame if it was misused and so come back to haunt them.

Mars opposite Midheaven (Strength: 1.44)

The oppositions bring about awareness through compromise. Conflicts from the opposition can involve either internal or external issues.

Shirley has the feisty planet Mars in opposition to the Midheaven. This child has a strong will with a quick temper. They like to get their own way and they have a powerful need to do well. These little ones can suffer a lot of inner tension, which can be confusing for them. In many ways they try too hard. Shirley will want to be recognized and noticed, but can seek attention in an aggressive way. Sometimes this happens because this child may have a stormy home environment. Shirley actually needs a peaceful place, so would find the atmosphere of a stormy home to be daunting. These kids need encouragement and lots of love and support.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

With all the correct caring and nurturing, Shirley will make good use of these energies. It will be quite natural to succeed because there will be an established and solid sense of self-worth. This child will feel good within, and that is what matters. Whether or not Shirley makes a resounding success of life will never be as important as the achievement of inner satisfaction. While Shirley is young, the parents should appreciate this depth. Help these kids to discover their deep and selfless needs, rather than make them conform to other people's expectations.

When the adolescent years arrive, Shirley will rather enjoy the feeling of finally making adult status. This could be a difficult teenager because Shirley will be in a hurry to set out on a path of personal choice. There should not be any trouble at all learning to deal with the opposite sex, but Shirley will gravitate towards those who are rebels against the establishment.

Moon square Uranus (Strength: 1.19)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

With the emotional Moon in square to the erratic planet Uranus, Shirley will be a rather excitable child. The nature tends to be highly-strung and unpredictable. There can be a hair-trigger temper, and the moods can change quickly and for seemingly little reason. When Shirley gets upset, there will be a tendency to act without thinking. There is a strong need for this child to learn not to do anything at all while upset or angry. Try to teach Shirley to count to ten, cool off a bit, and then decide what course of action to take. Hasty stuff will always go wrong and shake the confidence and result in another tantrum.

Often this aspect indicates that at some time in the formative years, this child's home life is erratic. This could be quite an obscure thing, but it does make it difficult to feel emotionally secure. Maybe frequent upsets and changes in circumstances are the order of the household, making this child learn to resent restrictions of any kind. There may be the feeling that they have to stand on their own two feet from a tender age. Shirley may tend not to "trust" those people who are close in case the bubble bursts.

But often there is an ingenious imagination. Shirley will be attracted to anything new and different. In maturity, this aspect can mark advanced thinkers, who is likely to remain a law unto themselves. These kids want to be able to move about and develop as a free spirit with no ties or chains.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Later in life, Shirley will have a casual, free attitude with the opposite sex. It will be hard to pin this kid down, and commitment to one person or one place will be a long time coming. Again, they like to feel that they can move on whenever they want to.

Tact is something that Shirley will have to learn in order to fit more comfortably into society. The uncompromising honesty and painfully truthful criticisms can make life difficult at times. These kids will shoot straight from the hip.

Mercury trine Saturn (Strength: 1.06)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

With the planet of communications, Mercury, in trine to the cautious planet Saturn, Shirley will think very carefully. The homework will have been done thoroughly before this youngster will consider showing their hand. They do not like to be wrong. If something does not make sense, or does not add up, Shirley will be perplexed.

These kids do have discipline, which they actually need in order to get anything done. They simply have to have a full understanding of everything. They will weigh up all the alternatives, and analyze all of the options. Often these kids can get too bogged down with minor details, so Shirley will need to develop a bit of flexibility and loosen up some.

The reasoning power and retentive memory is very strong because Shirley will take the time to totally absorb and understand. These kids are not known as spontaneous. Even when they feel that they know the subject in hand, and feel confident in their ability to communicate, these kids will seldom give an off-the-cuff answer.

Shirley is practical. There needs to be a purpose, and a solid objective, before there will be any commitment. Chaotic situations will confuse this child, and equally, half-baked ideas and theories will simply hold no appeal at all. This is realism in its highest form where extreme pride is felt for achievements.

This disciplined type of person will be capable of managing the most complex issues in a practical way. They will be reliable, astute, and very trustworthy. Physical health is good with strong recuperative powers.

Venus inconjunct Midheaven (Strength: 1.05)

The inconjunct (quincunx) involves the willpower and the areas where our 'thinking patterns' need some work.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

With the planet of love, Venus, inconjunct to the Midheaven, Shirley will place a lot of importance on being loved and loving back. Often these children put on a big front because they feel that if they let the 'real' person show through that no one will like them. They will need a lot of support and reassurance. The parents will have to be so careful in the discipline area. This means taking care to show any disapproval together with love and explanations, rather than personal criticism. It is important that this child understand where they go wrong. If they just feel the wrath, they will go scuttling off feeling guilty and bad. Shirley can get to a stage of being too scared to do anything in case it is wrong. When Shirley grows up, the same fear of failure can apply. Life can lack any feeling of success. The 'true' person can always be hidden away - out of fear of rejection or lack of self worth. This can be quite an isolating factor, inhibiting a 'complete' picture. Again, maybe just out of fear of disapproval

So, if this child shows signs of a real inferiority complex, a lot of work has to be done very early. Try to build up the confidence and sense of self worth. Help Shirley eliminate any self-doubt before it becomes a problem for life. Also, make absolutely sure that disciplinary measures reflect objectivity and reason, flavored with concern and caring. Try to avoid any personal assaults or severe criticism. Shirley will gather a whole lot of strength from being given the chance to learn and grow through mistakes. But this will need genuine effort and understanding of the possible afflictions of this aspect.

Venus conjunct Jupiter (Strength: 0.75)

The conjunctions add emphasis to the power, the energy, and the vitality of the planets

Venus, the planet of love, in conjunction to the benevolent planet Jupiter is an extremely positive aspect. It shows that Shirley is warm, generous, affectionate and very loyal. These children put a whole lot into friendship. They take the whole thing seriously and are not afraid to be openly affectionate and caring. They will be very social and will love company. This is the social butterfly.

This fortunate aspect tends to indicate a rather comfortable life where all of the material and psychological needs are fulfilled quite naturally. This produces a child who has a contented nature, who is quite happy with the cards that life has dealt. An inherent life of ease is the mark of this aspect. Shirley will expect life to be an easy cruise and can be rather careless later with money and assets because of this.

But what Shirley has in this easy-going and pleasant nature can be marred by a certain lack of discipline. These children expect things to go right, so seldom take the time to sit back and work out how to 'get there'. They simply go for it, taking success for granted. There is a chance of overindulgence because life will seem uncomplicated. Maybe Shirley needs to be taught that life is never served up on a silver platter - someone had to put in some serious work somewhere along the line to reach this particular lifestyle.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Later in life, Shirley will be rather self indulgent, and be too fond of high living. Jupiter expands all that it touches and the lovely planet Venus is all good stuff. But, this larger than life character, the generous nature, and sincere disposition, are all mostly highly positive. Love, harmony and a strong sense of beauty produce few negatives. Learning to apply a little more energy and not be so complacent can only help to enlarge the good of this aspect.

Sun sextile Moon (Strength: 0.50)

Sextiles bring chances and opportunity. Effort is needed to realize the full potential.

Shirley has the Sun sextile to the Moon making for a sociable little person. These kids just love any sort of interaction that will be an essential part of the personality throughout life. It is highly likely that the family will always be supportive and encouraging, thus showing Shirley, in an undeniable way, how to mix and mingle comfortably. The art of compromise is likely to be the most basic fundamental within the family unit, so this ability is learned very young. Even if the domestic atmosphere is less than tranquil, Shirley will cope well and will cast a powerful influence of peace and harmony anyway. Shirley, however, will always prefer company to being alone.

Although Shirley will be quite ambitious and will have hopes and goals, the need for positive examples will reinforce this. These kids can be too laid back, too relaxed, and be reluctant to make a move or apply serious effort. This can actually become a problem if it is not recognized. Shirley can settle for a whole lot less than what is possible. There can be a sheer reluctance to accept change of any sort. Make sure that little goals are placed early. Make a point of changing the bedroom around or the living area furniture. Get Shirley to help, and make a big fuss of how it was a big improvement. Emphasize the need to want something badly and then be prepared to go for it. Sooner or later, Shirley will adapt to change and be more willing to move some.

Generally though, Shirley will be a sunny-natured child who will accumulate few enemies in this life.

Jupiter trine Neptune (Strength: 0.34)

Trines bring ease, harmony, and success, which need little effort. Can help creativity.

Shirley has the big planet Jupiter trine to the dreamy planet Neptune. Neptune moves very slowly. So all children born around the same time will share this aspect. It should not be considered particularly personal.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

These children will be sensitive with very high ideals. They will have dreams of the world being a better place. They will be able to see the faults of society and will want to put them to right. These kids will love to help improve the lives of others. But this is not an absolute dreamer. This child will be able to tell the difference between what is fact and what is not, and will be willing to accept reality.

Often these kids will be interested in religious or spiritual pursuits. They need to feel that they are in tune with the universe. They may also be dedicated to fantasy where magic is real and strange beings exist. These kids often have a real affiliation with the supernatural.

With such a vivid imagination, these kids can be very creative. But, equally, they can simply drift through life. This little person could easily become a bit of a gambler. These kids can take silly risks. It would be helpful to lead by example here and enforce the idea that gambling can be destructive and a very dangerous game.

Jupiter square Pluto (Strength: 0.34)

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

Shirley has the big planet Jupiter Square the powerful planet Pluto: Pluto moves very slowly, so this aspect will affect all of the kids born around the same time as Shirley. Unless either of these two planets gets reinforcement from a close contact to one or more of the inner planets, this should not be considered particularly personal.

These children are often very strong-willed with a big need to succeed. They want to have the power to influence. This child can become a law unto itself, with an impatient and dogmatic attitude. Especially while these kids are young, they can have trouble with authority figures. They want to be heard but do not want to listen. They want respect but are not willing to return that respect.

But these kids can fluctuate between over-confidence and a barrel full of self-doubts too. They must learn to just be happy, to learn from their experiences and their mistakes. As they grow up, they may become obsessed with some rather fanatical ideas. If they can come down off their high horse, accept a few rules and regulations, they will achieve a great deal in their life. There is a powerful ability to lead in some way.

Mars square Saturn (Strength: 0.16)

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The Squares are quite subjective. Squares bring challenges that must be worked through.

Shirley has the energetic planet Mars in square to the planet Saturn. Life often seems hard and cold to this little one. If the family, especially the father, does not give Shirley enough emotional support, deep and lingering resentments will emerge. This child will have a chip on the shoulder that will weigh very heavily. The stance will continually be on the defensive and the attitude will be pessimistic. They may even seem to give up trying. Shirley needs a whole lot of loving support and confidence needs to be instilled early on. Try to teach this child to learn how to cope with both the good and the bad, to learn to shrug and say "so what?" Teach Shirley to greet a problem or a failure as a lesson. With total support and lots of love, Shirley will learn to use the solid strengths of this aspect. Without this support, the fear of rejection will leave a mark throughout life. There can be a tendency towards depression and self-pity. These poor youngsters will almost fear happiness. All they need is to be assured of love from a very early age, and to learn to feel "good" inside.

Shirley must be careful not to let any anger build up. There is probably a quick and rather spectacular temper brewing here. Give Shirley the time, the space, and the chance to openly discuss petty annoyances. Freedom of expression will need to be both encouraged and accepted in order to make this child feel confident and open.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple BlackDOMINANT PLANET(S)

The prominence of the Planets and the contacts that they make with each other define the strongest Planet(s) in the Natal Chart. Some planets make a lot of "noise" which you will see in the area of the "Aspects" while some are just waiting for something to happen. The following are considered the Powerhouse Planets and their meetings and positions add a further dimension to the attitudes and aptitudes of Shirley.

There can be more than one "strongest planet" in which case the person will have a natural ability to dance to many tunes - they will be adaptable and versatile. But if one planet or luminary comes through as the absolute leader, then the person will be very specifically made up of the flavor of that celestial body.

Saturn Dominant (Strength: 14.68)

Saturn is the planet that we call "old father Time" In many ways Saturn seems to have earned a reputation he does not deserve. So many of the words applied to the poor old chap sound cold and forbidding when in actual fact, Saturn is the ultimate teacher. Just like that cranky old math tutor from school that all the kids were afraid of, but years later, they remember everything about him - because he was a fine teacher. So is Saturn.

Children with a strong Saturn influence will seem to have a rough road to hoe. They will be forced to work hard, or perhaps, can be given too much responsibility. This could be an eldest child perhaps. Shirley will have to push through many complications to develop. These kids will seem to be harnessed in by structures that may seem like brick walls. But these walls are in fact fences that have to be climbed to find greener pastures. These kids will look back, as they grow up, and see the bends in the road behind them, and they will see how far they have come. They will be forced to change the boundaries and extend themselves which will be hard work. But it is likely that this little one will thrive on hard work, and the lessons learned will later prove invaluable.

Saturn has a very cool surface but underneath is a burning desire to succeed. This will apply to Shirley. Although youngsters with a powerful Saturn influence will seem old for their age, often their lives do not show great results until Saturn returns to its Natal position. This takes about 29 years. The lessons will become clearer then. Consequently, a strong Saturn influence is flavored with caution, patience, and the ability to plan and organize with great care. The natural approach is to do it right no matter how long it takes. The top of the mountain will be there tomorrow.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Often this planet refers to the Father figure, or authoritative figure in our lives in one way or another.

Pluto Dominant (Strength: 13.10)

Pluto is a little planet that is all power. It moves through the heavens in its own way and at its own pace, paying little attention to anyone as it tracks its elusive course. But this little planet knows exactly where it is going. Pluto is all about regeneration. Pluto takes old ideas by the scruff of the neck and shakes them violently until they have no further use. It finds a vague beginning for a brand new concept. Pluto rules volcanoes and the Plutonian changes are often of volcanic magnitudes. This is a rather cold planet. It is difficult to define. It is difficult to follow and difficult to penetrate, but underneath this chill is a deep and burning passion. Shirley with a powerful Pluto in the natal chart will be all of these things. These kids will be secretive and often silent. They will be clever. They will work their way through enormous changes in their lives, going through passages of darkness alone and coming out the other end a brand new person. The result can be a total transformation. Only they will truly understand where they have been. And this child will not be particularly interested in explaining anything to anyone. Shirley will be very private, very deep, but totally fascinating.

These kids do seem to have a certain knowledge that they exude but do not express or openly share. Others "feel" the power of this little person. They will be passionate in all that they do and their anger will be, again, volcanic. These kids will not be violent in their daily lives. In fact, they will be slow to anger but their depth of feeling is immeasurable.

Shirley will be strongly motivated, very determined, very stubborn, and probably quite ambitious. It will be a rare occasion that will make this child admit defeat. They will plot their own paths and follow them with sheer determination. Much of the path though life will be very private, but this is the preference of Pluto.

Midheaven Dominant (Strength: 11.72)

The MC, or the Mid Heaven, is considered to be the absolute top of the Chart. It is the mountain peak. It is the "dizzy heights to which we aspire". It is where we find fame or notoriety. It is the impact that we have on other people. It is our reputation, status, and our standing in the world or in our own community. In the child's chart, it is how their peers accept them.

With such a powerful MC, Shirley will not be a shrinking violet. This child will be easily recognized in its own way by those in authority. Shirley will make a definite mark during school life and through adulthood. This child may not set the world on fire or become a public figure, but this is always possible with this powerful energy being to the fore of this chart. Shirley will be the sort of person who leaves a lasting impression. These kids may have to work hard to gain recognition, or it could be slow coming, depending on the aspects that come in touch with the MC, but there will always be a strong fate that cannot be ignored.

Many people with a powerful MC do have a very definite job to do on earth. This can be very local and seemingly small, but significant. Or it can be of a far greater magnitude. Deep down there will be a conscious need for this child to "do something" and they will never be content to be totally anonymous.

It should be noted that within Astrology there are many different House systems in use, the majority of which have the MC and the 10th House cusp as one and the same. The writer personally uses the "equal house system" to which this does not apply. In the "equal house system" the MC can fall in the 9th or 10th House - and in extreme latitudes, in the 8th or 11th House. In the 9th House, it is considered that the child will spend time in University where they will study and gain qualifications before embarking on a profession. In the 10th House, the MC indicates more that the child will "learn on the job" when they leave school. The less common 8th House MC suggests that achievement will be hard to come by with many setbacks and not a lot of help in the career stakes. In the 11th House, career changes will be many and the person will have difficulty finding just what they want to do in life.

DOMINANT SIGN(S)

The Strongest sign often coincides with that of the Sun in the Natal Chart, because the planet Mercury is the Sun's closest companion - they are never far apart. The planet Venus can also stick quite closely to the mighty Sun. So, one or more of these planets are often in the same sign as the Sun at birth, adding further strength.

However, in many cases the "outer" planets can gang up and create a very strong, but quite a different, influence. This area of the Chart will either add more weight to the color and personality of this Child or it could add a further hue to their approach and intensity.

If there is more than one "strongest sign", which is likely, the person will have various facets to their approach and abilities, and so will scatter their energies somewhat. If there is one singleton sign, which outweighs the rest, Shirley will be more easily recognized by the attributes of the sign involved.

Aries Dominant (Strength: 164.42)

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The sign of Aries features strongly in this chart. Aries the Ram is indeed the caricature of the Ram in the best of traditional head-butting ways. Unfortunately, there is only enough room for one Ram in any household for the atmosphere to ever verge on tranquil. Two or more will spend most of their lives competing fiercely to gain control, while the rest of the immediate environment will spend their time looking for a gap in the fence to escape. This little character will be boisterous, energetic, noisy, and impatient. The vocabulary will be full of "I, me & mine". Shirley will want to leave no stone unturned in a quest to cover every inch of ground there is to cover. These kids will never give up and will never give in. But, interest in projects, hobbies and friends is often short lived. There is always something new and exciting to move on to. The Aries personality is essentially very warm, very loving, and very honest. These kids are enthusiastic, impulsive, and always buzzing about something. They are passionate in all that they feel and all that they do. They will have a strong competitive streak, but their eye will be on winning rather than just making up the numbers. Aries rules the head, which will be so obvious as you watch this little one rush headlong into another trail-blazing venture. They can also be susceptible to headaches and fevers. This fiery character simply "overheats".

Shirley does show this strong Arian influence so there is the suggestion to instigate some steady discipline very early in life to use all of this powerful energy constructively.

Sagittarius Dominant (Strength: 90.46)

One of the stronger signs in this Chart is Sagittarius, the Archer or the Centaur. This child will develop both physical and mental strength and also, stamina. Shirley will always love to learn. These kids can make excellent teachers later because they like to share their knowledge and their expressive ways make them entertaining and easy to listen to. These kids can improve on the truth to add a bit more flavor to an experience or a story they are telling. This is not done in a menacing way - Shirley will simply love to tell a good tale. Often a strong Sagittarius influence shows strongly in sports teams. Shirley will be competitive, well coordinated, and will have the ability to encourage and drive team efforts. The attitude is also very fair.

These kids are capable of quite profound thinking and will develop a strong philosophy as they grow up. Interests lean towards the more universal subjects. The "big issues" will fascinate Shirley. Often the thinking goes way beyond "global".

Shirley will probably love the outdoors, the wide-open spaces, and will be fond of all creatures great and small. Even as youngsters, these kids will really enjoy school camps or even family camping holidays where they can get in touch with nature. They relish the beauty of the planet, Earth, and the elusive wonders of the beyond. These kids can wear themselves out though as they will never admit that they are tired. They want to be on the go the whole time. There is just so much for them to see and do.

AstroDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

These are generally very happy and contented kids; they see the best in everything. They are not usually petty and their optimism gives them a good outlook which is contagious. These kids are able to lift the low spirits of those around them, and if they cannot, they will move on. Shirley will avoid moody people who try to dampen the atmosphere in any way.

This is the sign of the "traveler", and these children will be interested in different countries and different cultures. Shirley will probably be keen to buy a backpack as soon as possible and head off to see the world. It will be to experience the world and its people rather than as the average tourist.

Taurus Dominant (Strength: 58.20)

Taurus is one of the strongest signs in this Chart. Taurus the Bull is patient, practical, and stubborn, but very reliable. These children are resourceful and will work their way patiently through any project that they attempt. Their finished article should be well-presented. They will like things to look 'nice'. These are earthy type people, so Shirley will enjoy the outdoors and nature. They will also enjoy food, although often the taste buds are attuned to the wrong types of food, so a bit of training there could be a good idea.

Shirley will not like change. Taureans prefer a routine that is familiar - something on which they can depend. Their reluctance to 'move' can be purely physical - they can get comfortable and simply not be bothered moving. Shirley can be a bit of a lazy-bones. It is a case of anything for a peaceful life. These children will like to be surrounded by lots of possessions that they will have tagged as 'theirs'. They are often reluctant to share, so will need to be taught. This little one could be afraid that letting something out of their sight for even a moment will mean that it is gone forever. Gentle coaxing and proof that things do come back will help to overcome this.

These children are usually rather quiet most of the time. They can keep themselves amused and are generally quite content. But do not be too taken in by a seemingly placid exterior - the Taurean character, like the bull can be led or coaxed into most things, but when pushed they will see red. An angry Shirley will charge as only the Bull can. This child will put the head down, probably snort and pant and go for it for all that they are worth. And if they miss their target on the first attempt they will stomp around for a bit, bide their time, and come hurtling in again. You will find that Shirley is persistent, determined, and never forgets. So, as parents, it is important that you learn not to make promises that you cannot keep. Shirley will take you at your word and will not be afraid to nag to get results. Never take this placid nature totally for granted. Shirley may seem quite content, but will still need to receive all of the fuss and attention that the more demanding children receive.

DOMINANT HOUSE(S)

The Houses in the Natal Chart are very significant because they indicate the areas where we have been born lucky or where we have serious work to do. The Houses define the areas in life where we expend our energies, where we find recurring issues with which we have to deal.

The basic Natal Chart is simply the blueprint of the Heavens at the exact time of our birth. But in reading a child's chart, there is a different emphasis. Obviously a child "reflects" its everyday environment during the formative years and this Natal chart for Shirley acknowledges these reflections. In the case of a child, many of the attitudes and habits are reflections of the up bringing and environmental influences. Often work needs to be done to reach out for the opposite House to achieve a fuller picture.

Fifth House Dominant (Strength: 143.32)

5th House: Playing. Games. Creativity. Hobbies. Social life. Children.

This child has a crowded 5th House. The 5th house is leisure, fun, and sporting activities. It is all about enthusiasm, creative energy, and self-expression - and later, love-affairs. This is the House of learning to share talents, where we learn to entertain.

Shirley will be sunny, happy, and very friendly and will probably have loads of friends. The social group (we hope) of planets in this house will suggest that it is very important that this little one does have a chance to develop their creativity. They need to be encouraged to have confidence in any ability in order to let real talents emerge. They need to be encouraged to be themselves and not become what they think is expected of them.

As they go through life, Shirley will always be young at heart. But there will be a burning ambition to leave something of worth behind in this life. The aim will be to leave something for posterity. This child will feel robbed if they never have the chance to use their highly creative mind to its fullest ability. Probably, the "child" will always be alive and well in this person even when they venture into their adult years. This gives a real knack with children throughout life too. Shirley will be able to communicate in such a way that is not patronizing or condescending. These kids can do a lot of good "looking after" younger people. Shirley will enjoy smaller children and "littlies" will just love Shirley.

Help to guide this little one into reaching out to the opposite house, the 11th House, to learn how to work as part of a group. It will be good for Shirley to learn to be less subjective and less passionate, to learn to get involved in a "sharing" capacity, rather than allowing the ego to rule.

Seventh House Dominant (Strength: 53.50)

7th House: This House is about close friends and best friends. It involves relationships and learning to interact with others. It is about sharing and receiving. The lessons from this House will mould the character that will evolve into the "outer self" through interaction. The seventh House will always involve "intimate associates or friends".

There is a lot of strength in the 7th House here which is related to best friends in the child's life. In maturity, this refers to relationships, partnerships, and marriage. This House is all about the ability to relate to others. It is the social conscience, and it is the reaching out to others. This is also the 1st House in the 3rd quadrant of the Astrological Wheel - where we start to feel the affects that other people have on us.

Shirley should be very sociable and will always prefer to be in company rather than alone. These children should be able to get along with others easily. They are gifted with charming manners and always make a concentrated effort to please. Friends will be of the utmost importance, and there will be a lot of work put into maintaining a harmonious and balanced atmosphere. Shirley could well stay in a friendship or relationship even when it has started to go sour - putting more than the fair share of effort into "keeping the fires going". The biggest fear that haunts Shirley is to be left alone. With such a strong emphasis on friendships and partnerships in this chart, there are bound to be good effects and bad effects that will color or cloud this child's life in this matter - all of which will be seemingly "beyond their control".

Shirley will have to reach out to the positives of the opposite House, the 1st House, and try to become more independent. Learn to express important and personal opinions and not feel so afraid of offending or losing friends. These kids have to learn to become more of an individual and not actively seek approval to feel accepted quite so much. They should certainly have the ability to lead from the front. They have to be able to feel comfortable with the fact that wherever they are, people will like them anyway. Just a bit too much emphasis is placed on being popular and accepted.

First House Dominant (Strength: 44.65)

1st House: The "I, me, and mine". The ego and the subjective. The "I want" attitude. Outward behavior.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The 1st House has to be considered a powerful place in the chart because it takes in the all-important Ascendant which is how others see us. It is the projected personality, the self-awareness, and our basic approach to life.

Shirley will have a powerful personality and a powerful presence. These kids will be noticed in a crowd because they will project their own image. They will certainly want to be seen. This child will be dogmatic and forceful in their speech. They will probably be heard quite easily above the crowd because theirs will be the only opinion that matters. There is bound to be a rather large ego. Shirley will fight it out to be "number one" and will not give up easily. A lot of pride is at stake here and coming second does not have the sort of ring this kid wants to hear. This boundless energy and enthusiasm can all be a bit daunting to those who are not quite so competitive, but nothing will deter this little one as they rush through life.

A message to Shirley with a strong 1st house would be to reach out to the opposite house in the chart, the 7th House. This house is about sharing and compromise within relationships and friendships. It will help to round out the character if Shirley can learn to bend a little and be a bit more flexible and accommodating, consider how other people feel and what other people need, and use "collective" words, rather than ego-orientated words.

Balance of Elements and Modalities

DOMINANT ELEMENT(S)

The four elements figure strongly in the definition and interpretation of the signs. The dominant element(s) can help to identify the personality type quite successfully. In many cases, there will be a combination of more than one, which indicates more flexibility.

It can be quite easy to spot the "fiery" personality, the "down to earth" type, the "head in the clouds" Air person, or the weepy and emotional water character.

Abundant Fire

The Fire signs are Aries, Leo, and Sagittarius. Fire is all about impatience, enthusiasm, and energy. These kids will want to be involved in everything possible - and well as "impossible", at times. There will be a passion for life. A dominant Sun, Mars, or Jupiter will add to the predominance of fire characteristics in this chart.

These children are high-spirited, energetic and impulsive. They can have very quick tempers. They can be domineering and can be argumentative, but will not usually hold a grudge unless there is a good and valid reason. Fire signs are a little like a tropical storm, - a cloudburst, and then glorious sunshine. And then these volatile youngsters will genuinely wonder why everyone around them can be left quite wounded.

Shirley will be independent, self-willed and self-motivated. This child can be a handful and will certainly need some discipline, but this needs to be administered carefully. After a heavily emotional confrontation with a fire child, the best time to discuss the situation is when the energies have cooled down (parents have to be saints at times). Shirley will no doubt argue, but if the timing is right, will take any reprimands on board - but - do not expect any admission of being wrong. This kid will never go that far.

If any authority figure cracks the whip and overwhelms this child with no explanation, they will simply react even stronger and louder. The fire will intensify. If Shirley gets the feeling that adults always use power arbitrarily, without rules or accountability, it will make Shirley a fighter against the authorities.

Shirley will be open and forthright, preferring to act out in front where the world can see. If you encourage honesty you will get just that. It may be coupled with a brutal frankness and a seeming insensitivity, but this would seldom be intended. These kids just do not stop to think.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley could find it difficult to cry or show emotions because it will be difficult to admit that something is wrong. The aim will always be to appear so strong and independent. It is very important that these children do learn to expose their feelings more. But remember - the aim with the predominantly Fire child is to tame them - not to break the valuable spirit.

Lack of Air

When an element is "lacking", it can indicate a need to encourage the essentials of this "lack", to help round the character off a little. This often happens over time anyway, quite naturally. But watch Shirley and you will see if any building needs to be done. But rather than see this as a "weakness", it is preferable to accept that one or more of the other elements comes through more strongly. The apparent "lack" can also be compensated within the chart anyway. It only needs one powerful aspect to add some weight.

The Air signs are Gemini, Libra, and Aquarius.

With the Air element lacking in this chart for Shirley, it can mean an inability to think clearly or reasonably. There can be a real difficulty accepting the challenge of alternative views. This child can seem to be a bit of a void in some strange way. It is not that these kids are not intelligent, but just that they do not seem to place a lot of value on ideas and education for education's sake. Often, a shortage of Air signifies an inability to communicate effectively or clearly. Shirley may work hard at being somewhat enigmatic and obscure. Sometimes there is self-consciousness. These kids may over-compensate by working hard to improve the personality because they realize that they have a problem in relating well. It may be hard for Shirley to stand back and clearly view an issue in an objective manner - so there can be a tendency to have some trouble in the task of planning.

These people must make a special effort to communicate clearly and plan very carefully. Otherwise, any advancement will come only through costly trial and error.

Lack of Earth

When an element is "lacking", it can indicate a need to encourage the essentials of this "lack", to help round the character off a little. This often happens over time anyway, quite naturally. But watch Shirley and you will see if any building needs to be done. But rather than see this as a "weakness", it is preferable to accept that one or more of the other elements comes through more strongly. The apparent "lack" can also be compensated within the chart anyway. It only needs one powerful aspect to add some weight.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

The Earth signs are Taurus, Virgo, and Capricorn.

A lack of the Earth element in this chart suggests that this child may have some difficulties dealing with practical and mundane issues. In fact, it may be said that they are not really at home on the planet Earth. Shirley may seem to be somehow lost in space and unable to get the feet on the ground. Because of this, these kids may reject responsibility. They can have trouble getting organized and following through on a task. Often there can be a childish inability to handle boring, but necessary tasks. Shirley could be one of those kids who need help to accomplish the simplest chore. Material matters and money may be secondary concerns. These types may not be particularly interested in earthly possessions or any sort of material gain. Sometimes expressing a compulsive trait toward neatness and detail compensates for the absence of the Earth element. Or, perhaps the compensation comes through as a major concern for organization.

More often, the absence of earth signs means good old-fashioned common sense may not be a strong suit. Shirley should be encouraged to spend time outdoors with nature, to get in touch with the basic practicalities of life, and to learn to be more accountable and to take responsibility.

DOMINANT MODES or QUALITIES

The "Modes" or the "Qualities" often indicate how we initiate our actions. The Cardinal types are firm, confident, and are better starters than they are finishers. The Fixed types are quite reluctant to step outside of the comfort zone. They prefer to stay with the tried and true. The Mutable people are flexible and adaptable but they can be flimsy.

But, again, in many cases there is a combination of more than one mode.

Abundant Cardinal

The Cardinal signs are the first sign of each of the four segments - Aries, Cancer, Libra, and Capricorn. These signs are rather assertive, and like to take the initiative.

These are the self-starters - the self-imposed leaders. For this reason, it is sometimes difficult for cardinal-sign people to co-operate and compromise easily. Libra is a bit of an exception being so "agreeable" in many aspects of life, and being so willing to please. But the strong Libran will often take the initiative in starting a friendship. It is in this area that these particular (Libran) people will take the initiative. Unfortunately, the Cardinal signs may not finish what they have started.

AstroIDeluxe Child Report for Shirley Temple Black

Shirley will enjoy the role of the leader, but may not take it very well if forced to take a secondary role. If these kids are not calling the shots, they may well lose interest altogether. It can be easier for them to avoid group activities rather than take the more submissive role of watching someone else run the show.

In a difficult situation, Shirley will usually prefer a direct approach charging right into the situation to resolve it as quickly as possible. Ideas may be good because there will be a natural aptitude at solving problems, but a major problem is lack of persistence. These kids get discouraged easily and need a great deal of support to help them stay with a project. Shirley will work well if taught to set goals and then be given heaps of praise when achievement has been recognized.

Shirley will thrive on constant activity with efforts directed at the here and now. The ambition will be strong and the instincts reactionary. Positively expressed, the Cardinal signs produce constructive initiative, but this imbalance can easily produce a lot of wasted energy that gains little.

FINALE

As adults, we look back on our youth and say, "if only I knew then what I know now". How many of us also, as we get older, "discover" a talent that has never been recognized and say "if only". If this Chart report simply indicates a talent that can be nurtured early in life, as opposed to laying dormant for too long a time, or forever, then the author's objective has been reached.
